

Volunteers

Sprouting Chefs is a not for profit group of committed individuals. We are parents, teachers, chefs, gardeners and community members and we are focused on improving the lives of youth throughout areas of Vancouver BC. We believe that healthy minds and bodies start with healthy eating. We believe that healthy eating begins with a thorough knowledge, understanding and appreciation of where our food comes from.

SUMMARY:

We are seeking volunteers to support the Sprouting Chefs program in the areas of: Program Operations, Community Relations and Office Administration. Successful candidates will require a criminal record search and reference checks.

We are asking for a minimum commitment of 4 hours per month.

PROGRAM OPERATIONS:

-  Support Chef Leader and Assistant Chef Leader in delivery of school and summer cooking programs for youth.
-  Help lead youth through cooking a variety of recipes and safe kitchen practices.
-  Assist with set-up and take-down activities

COMMUNITY RELATIONS:

-  Represent the Sprouting Chefs program at various community events.
-  Answer questions from public and provide information on various programs.
-  Conduct simple cooking demonstrations to promote the Sprouting Chefs program.

OFFICE ADMINISTRATION:

-  Database management and generation of various reports for program planning.
-  Update content for website and other social media sites.
-  Help prepare brochures, newsletters and other marketing materials.
-  Support on-site program activities, including cooking programs and community events, as required.

TO APPLY:

Send resume and application to info@sproutingchefs.com.

Application can be downloaded from www.sproutingchefs.com.